

Effect on employees

An intervention closes the firm.

Your contract of employment is personal to you and your former employer. Unfortunately, we are unable to assume any rights or obligations in relation to your contract.

Your former employer remains liable to you for your salary, references and the issue of a P45.

You should consider seeking independent legal advice if you are unable to get hold of the above. Contacting Citizens Advice might be a good place to start, or if you are a member of a trade union, they may be able to help.
