This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that Miss Charlton:-

1. On 7 April 2022 and 13 May 2022, sent correspondence to her client's daughter and son-in-law Person B and Person C, which she knew or ought to have known was misleading as she omitted to tell them that the client's applications for Lasting Powers of Attorneys had only been sent to the Office of the Public Guardian on 6 April 2022.
2. On 27 July 2022, she sent correspondence to the firm's Professional Standards Team which she knew or ought to have known was misleading as she omitted to inform them that the client's applications to register Lasting Powers of Attorneys had only been sent to the Office of the Public Guardian on 6 April 2022.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
