

What children should expect at youth court

4 August 2025

We worked closely with the Youth Justice Legal Centre [http://www.yjlc.uk/] and Just for Kids Law [https://www.justforkidslaw.org/] to explore what children should expect from a solicitor.

This easy to read leaflet

[https://guidance.sra.org.uk/globalassets/documents/solicitors/youth-court-leaflet.pdf] explains how solicitors can help them. It was tested with children and solicitors and has been well received. You can request printed versions [https://form.sra.org.uk/s3/youth-court].

You can also use the information in our good practice guide [https://guidance.sra.org.uk/solicitors/resources/continuing-competence/good-practice-guide/] to help your clients understand what to expect from you.

Resources to help children

Use these resources to help explain the youth justice system to children:

- The Ministry of Justice has a Youth Justice Charter [ that explains the standards that a child can expect from the people and organisations they might meet in the youth justice system.
- The Youth Justice Legal Centre has short videos for young people about the criminal justice system [http://www.yjlc.uk/resources/explainer-videos-young-people].
- 'Going to court' [http://www.socialworkerstoolbox.com/going-court-booklet-children-young-people-going-witnesses-crown-magistrates-youth-court/] is a booklet for children who are going to be witnesses in court.
