

Other news

April 2025 SQE2 results published

27 August 2025

Candidates continue to perform well at SQE2. Results show an 84% pass rate among first-time candidates and an overall pass rate of 82% across all 2,753 candidates. More candidates sat SQE2 in April 2025 than before – up 21% on 2024.

This sitting marked the second use of scaled scoring for SQE2 to present results aligning it with SQE1. Candidates now receive a score out of 500, with a scaled pass mark of 300. This makes it easy to compare results across sittings. Read more about scaled scoring for SQE2 [\[https://sqa.org.uk/news-item/2025/05/21/updated-guidance-and-video-on-the-presentation-of-candidate-sqe2-results\]](https://sqa.org.uk/news-item/2025/05/21/updated-guidance-and-video-on-the-presentation-of-candidate-sqe2-results).

Kaplan, our assessment provider, has published a statistical report [\[https://sqa.org.uk/exam-arrangements/sqe-reports\]](https://sqa.org.uk/exam-arrangements/sqe-reports) on the results.